14.3 Any provision of the Contract that expressly or by implication is intended to have effect after termination shall continue in full force and effect.

15. Confidentiality

15.1 Each party undertakes that it shall not at any time during the Contract, and for a period of two years after termination of the Contract, disclose to any person any confidential information concerning the business, assets, affairs, customers, clients or suppliers of the other party or of any member of the group of companies to which the other party belongs, except as permitted by clause 15.2.

15.2 Each party may disclose the other party's confidential information:

- (a) to its employees, officers, representatives, contractors or subcontracts or advisers who need to know such information for the purposes of exercising the party's rights or carrying out its obligations under or in connection with the Contract. Each party shall ensure that its employees, officers, representatives or advisers to whom it discloses the other party's confidential information comply with this clause 15; and
- (b) as may be required by law, a court of competent jurisdiction or any governmental or regulatory authority.

15.3 No party shall use any other party's confidential information for any purpose other than to exercise its rights and perform its obligations under or in connection with the Contract.

15.4 Each party shall comply with all applicable laws, statutes, and regulations relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption, including the Bribery Act 2010. Neither party shall engage in any activity, practice or conduct which would constitute an offence under sections 1, 2 or 6 of the Bribery Act 2010 if such activity, practice or conduct had been carried out in the United Kingdom.

15.5 Each party shall comply with all applicable laws relating to slavery, servitude, forced or compulsory labour, and human trafficking, including the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

15.6 Each party shall comply with the Criminal Finances Act 2017 and shall not engage in any activity, practice or conduct which would constitute a tax evasion facilitation offence under UK law. Each party shall have and maintain in place reasonable procedures to prevent the facilitation of tax evasion.

16. Force majeure

Neither party shall be liable for any delay or failure in the performance of its obligations for so long as and to the extent that such delay or failure results from a Force Majeure Event. If the period of delay or non-performance continues for 60 days, the party not affected may terminate the Contract by giving not less than 14 days' written notice to the affected party.

17. General

17.1 Assignment and other dealings

- (a) The Supplier may at any time assign, mortgage, charge, subcontract, delegate, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with any or all of its rights and obligations under the Contract.

17.3 Severance. If any provision or part-provision of the Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed deleted, but that shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of the Contract. If any provision or part provision of the Contract is deemed deleted under this clause 17.3 the parties shall negotiate in good faith to agree a replacement provision that, to the greatest extent possible, achieves the commercial result of the original provision.

17.4 Waiver.

- (a) Except as set out in clause 2.7, a waiver of any right or remedy under the Contract or by law is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent right or remedy.
- (b) A failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict any further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

17.5 No partnership or agency. Nothing in the Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between the parties, constitute either party the agent of the other, or authorise either party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of the other party.

17.6 Entire agreement.

- (a) The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties.
- (b) Each party acknowledges that in entering into the Contract it does not rely on any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in the Contract. Each party agrees that it has no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation or negligent misstatement based on any statement in the Contract.

- (b) The rights of the parties to rescind or vary the Contract are not subject to the consent of any other person.

17.8 Variation. Except as set out in these Conditions, no variation of the Contract shall be effective unless it is agreed in writing and signed by the parties (or their authorised representatives).

17.9 Governing law. The Contract and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

17.10 Jurisdiction. Each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with the Contract or its subject matter or formation.

18. Export Terms

18.1 In these Conditions, "Incoterms" means the rules for the use of trade terms published by the International Chamber of Commerce and in force at the date of the Contract (currently Incoterms® 2020). Unless the context otherwise requires, any term or expression which is defined in, or given a particular meaning by, Incoterms shall have the same meaning in these Conditions, but if there is any conflict between Incoterms and these Conditions, these Conditions shall prevail.

18.2 Where the Goods are supplied for export from the United Kingdom, this clause 18 shall apply notwithstanding any other provision of these Conditions or any implied statutory term, except as expressly stated otherwise in writing by the Seller.

18.3 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Goods shall be delivered CIP (named place of destination, Incoterms® 2020). Risk in the Goods shall pass to the Buyer in accordance with the chosen Incoterm.

18.4 The Buyer shall: (a) obtain, at its own risk and expense, any import licences, clearances and other consents required for the importation of the Goods into the country of destination; (b) comply with all applicable laws and regulations governing such importation; and (c) pay all duties, taxes and other charges in connection with the importation and carriage of the Goods.

- 18.5 The Buyer shall be given a reasonable opportunity to inspect the Goods at the Seller's premises prior to shipment. If the Buyer fails to inspect the Goods before shipment, it shall be deemed to have accepted the Goods as conforming to the Contract and shall have no claim in respect of any defect which would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection.
- 18.6 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Buyer shall pay all sums due in full and in cleared funds prior to shipment. The Seller may withhold shipment until payment is received in full.
